

I do not want the telemarketers to be able to call me - if I have some type of an account with them! It has been wonderful not having the invasive calls coming in from various places! Now that we have a child, the last thing we want, is to be bothered again by these annoying phone calls!